FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Vancouver Video Production Company Basetwo Media Wins 2 Communicator Awards

VANCOUVER, BC - May 26th, 2009 - Basetwo Media (www.basetwomedia.com), a video production company based in Vancouver, has received two 2009 Communicator Awards. The international awards honor the best in communication excellence and are presented and judged by the International Academy of the Visual Arts (IAVA).

Basetwo Media was awarded a Gold Award of Excellence for a training DVD series produced for Peak Potentials Training based on their Millionaire Mind Seminar, and a Silver Award of Distinction for a promotional video produced for Camosun College International.

"We are honored to have our work recognized as a testament to the results we deliver to our clients", said Jeff Pelletier, Executive Producer and co-founder of Basetwo Media.

Founded by communication professionals over a decade ago, The Communicator Awards is an annual competition honoring the best in advertising, corporate communications, public relations and identity work for video, print, interactive and audio. This year's program received over 7000 entries from video production companies, ad agencies, and other creative professionals.

Basetwo Media is a leading corporate video production company based in Vancouver, BC which specializes in the production of promotional, training & educational videos, as well as event videography for small to large sized businesses.
